THE FREEDOM LIBRARY EDUCATION PROGRAM AND SCHOLARSHIP Administered by: The Freedom Library, Inc.

The Freedom Library, Inc. is proud to present to the Yuma area an eleven-week class of instruction in “The Freedom Philosophy” during both spring and fall semesters. The class is a study of the United States Constitution developed by the Founding Fathers, and includes the study of the Presidency, Congress, and judicial branch of government from the Founding to the present, and examines the implementation of a constitutional republic.

The “Freedom Philosophy” includes, but is not limited to, the concept of a free market, private property, limited government way of life, and the moral and intellectual principles, which form the basis of a free society.

PROGRAM PARTICIPATION:

To enroll in the program, an applicant must complete and submit to The Freedom Library the application form found at the website above and be able to attend the weekly Constitution class held at The Freedom Library.

ELIGIBILITY TO RECEIVE A $1,000 FREEDOM LIBRARY SCHOLARSHIP:

1. You must successfully complete all required coursework as stipulated in the course syllabus.
2. Scholarships will be awarded to the eligible and qualified individuals who display the highest quality of understanding and comprehensive proficiency of the “Freedom Philosophy” as expressed in the individual’s term paper reflecting how the principles found in the United States Constitution apply to a current issue.

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE:

THE FREEDOM LIBRARY $1,000 ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIP:

A $1,000 scholarship awarded to any eligible individual in the name of The Freedom Library, Inc., and forwarded directly to the institution of higher learning of the recipient’s choice at the commencement of the individual’s next academic year.
